

EFFORT TO BE MADE FOR PARALLEL PARKING IN NILES "BOTTLENECK"

Niles Chamber Will Re- quest State to Paint Parking Lanes

In an effort to remedy the hazardous traffic condition on Niles First street in the postoffice block, the state highway department will be asked to paint parallel parking lanes in the "bottleneck," it was decided at the Monday meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce.

Members of the chamber felt that although parallel parking would be difficult to enforce, the painting of parallel parking lanes would lead many motorists to park in a parallel position voluntarily.

The action on parallel parking was taken after a letter was read from the state highway department at Sacramento suggesting such a policy as the best solution of the traffic hazard. The body of the letter follows:

"In further reference to your letter of January 13 calling attention to the congested traffic conditions on our state highway through Niles road IV.ALA-5-C you suggest that an additional three feet on each side of the street be taken from the sidewalk space providing thus an additional six feet for roadway purposes.

"An investigation of this situation reveals that the principal cause of traffic congestion is due to diagonal parking. It is our understanding that the present conditions place a 42-foot width between curbs for the roadway from G street south; by adding three feet on each side the total width for roadway would become forty-eight feet. Allowing for parallel parking eight feet on each side would reduce the actual usable roadway width for traffic purposes to about thirty-two feet. This width is not more than sufficient for two streams of traffic in opposite directions which would already be provided under present conditions were the parking regulations changed to prohibit diagonal parking.

"It is our opinion, therefore, that your proposal will not afford the proper relief for the congestion and that the removing of three feet of sidewalks which are on state property under permit, and the widening of the pavement to a corresponding width, is not a proper state charge, but is the proper charge against adjacent property."

The ownership of the strip of property by the fire house on Niles First street which the Niles chamber proposes to beautify will probably be settled definitely in the near future, judging from a letter from the county board of supervisors read at Monday's meeting. The communication stated that the matter had been turned over to George Posey, county surveyor, who can be expected to make a decision soon.

William Jones announced that plans for the annual Niles Wild

PUNISH KIDNAPING WITH DEATH SAYS JOE CRAIL

A bill to make kidnaping a crime punishable by death was introduced into the House of Representatives by Congressman Joe Crail (Republican) of California.

The provisions of the bill would apply to kidnaping crimes in which the victim might be transported across a state line, which would place the matter under the jurisdiction of the Federal Government.

"The Lindbergh baby kidnaping is only one of a long series of crimes of this outrageous sort which must be stopped," Congressman Crail declared, in explaining his motive for the proposed legislation. "Now that bootlegging has been hit by the depression, kidnaping has shown an increase, and this vicious form of racketeering must be stamped out at once."

Demands have been made of several state legislatures that bills making kidnaping a crime subject to capital punishment be enacted.

The title of Crail's bill is: "To make capital punishment the penalty for transporting kidnapped persons in interstate or foreign commerce and for other purposes." It is numbered HR 10799 and was referred to the Judiciary committee of the House.

Conspiracy between two or more persons to commit a kidnaping also comes under the provisions of the bill, which would permit punishment by death, or, upon the recommendation of a jury for clemency, imprisonment in the penitentiary for such term of years as the court in its discretion shall determine.

RAIN DAMAGE TO APRICOT CROP TO BE DETERMINED

Thinning operations are now going on in the apricot crop in southern Alameda county. It will soon be determined to what extent the recent rains damaged the fruit this year. Several hundred men are being employed in this end of the county in the thinning work.

It is the opinion of many of the ranchers that approximately fifty per cent of the young fruit will be lost this year but on account of the large amount of blossoms an almost normal crop is expected. Tours are being made by fruit buyers from the canneries in the bay district of orchards with the idea of contracting for the fruit on the trees. Although actual bidding has not yet begun, it is expected to start within a week when the buyers have finished their inspection tours.

The street was sleet—out slipped her feet, With a jolt that shook her curls,

And the words she used must be excused, For she's one of our high school girls.

STANDARD OIL TO STIMULATE TRADE BY ADVERTISING

A note of returning prosperity may be glimpsed in the recent announcement made by the Standard Oil Company of California that an extensive advertising program for 1932 has been approved by that organization. The campaign will be launched in April and will undoubtedly result in a great benefit to many.

Rather than cease advertising when business is in a depressed condition, the Standard Oil Company, which always has been a consistent user of newspaper advertising space, has adopted a policy of sound advertising to combat depression and stimulate business. Such a policy will influence not only the publishers and manufacturers of advertising materials, but also thousands of individuals engaged in producing and distributing Standard products. Thus indirectly the organization's promotional plans are helping to create employment—from oil well and refinery to the dealer's block. Faster turnover of products and cash will have its wholesome effect on production, packing, transportation, banking and many other businesses.

dence and ease in appearing in public, and the dramatic role is one of the methods by which this desirable trait can be successfully developed in the student.

All readers of American literature are familiar with Booth Tarkington's stories of American youth, and with "Seventeen." The cast which has been selected from the high school student body to portray this drama is well fitted to play the parts assigned them. The part of the hero of the story, Willie Baxter, is taken by Ralph Logan, who can be expected to perform with credit. Lola Pratt, the "baby talk" girl and the object of Willie's dreams, is portrayed by Jean Roderick, who can be counted on to play the role to perfection.

Others taking part in the play are Melvin Farmer, Gordon Justus, Margaret Silva, Vivian Luna, Aldena Azevedo, Dexter Witherly, John Habenicht, Patrick Pine, Robert Clark, Irving Steinhoff, Kathleen Eulich and Elaine Boyce.

Flowers To Be in Full Bloom for Memorial Day Service

The American Legion Auxiliary, of Pleasanton, has planted Flanders' poppies on the center plots of the St. Augustine and Odd Fellows' cemeteries, where the services on Memorial Day are held.

This improvement was made to help beautify the cemeteries on that day, at which time hundreds of people gather to pay their last ones tribute. It is said by the Auxiliary members that the poppies will be in full bloom at that time.

A few members of the American Legion Post spaded the ground of the plots, and the women of the Auxiliary planted the seed. These two plots are located at the end of the driveway leading into both of the cemeteries.

PLEASANTON WOMEN MAKE SUCCESS OF DEPRESSION PARTY

Affair Given by Improvement Club Is Attended by Many

A depression card party held by Pleasanton Women's Improvement Club at its club rooms in the City Hall, last Friday afternoon, was most successful socially and financially, according to Mrs. J. B. Lee, of Pleasanton, president.

The room was beautifully decorated with lilacs, flag lilies, and other blossoms. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

Whist and bridge were enjoyed. Those winning honors in whist were Mrs. John Amaral, Mrs. Edna Harris, Mrs. Abby Walker, and Mrs. D'Arcy Chase. The lucky in bridge were Mrs. Libby Sweeney, Mrs. T. H. Silver, Mrs. A. B. Pickard, Mrs. Lawrence Cunningham, J. W. Sheffield, Charles Chicazola, and Mrs. John Taylor, all of Pleasanton.

A maiden fair, with auburn hair Came tripping down the street: The air was keen—her age sixteen;

And really she was sweet. The street was sleet—out slipped her feet, With a jolt that shook her curls, And the words she used must be excused, For she's one of our high school girls.

NEW COLOR SCHEME IN CERTIFICATES FOR NEW REGISTRATIONS

Certificates of registration issued in California on cars being registered for the first time from another state will be blue and certificates of ownership on the same cars will be golden rod.

This was announced recently by Russell Bevens, registrar of the department of motor vehicles, who explained that the change was in compliance with a new section of the motor vehicle act requiring that certificates issued on cars coming into California be of a distinctive color.

The same color will prevail during the life time of the car, Bevens said.

The arrangement was designed primarily to make it easier to run down stolen cars brought to California.

CALIFORNIA HAS AUTO FOR EVERY 2.8 PERSONS

State Has Largest Per Capita Registration of Motor Cars in Nation

Figures showing that California leads all the states of the nation in the per capita registration of motor vehicles were made public recently by the department of motor vehicles.

The figures show California has one motor vehicle for every 2.8 persons.

Registrar Russell Bevens estimated this would be enough cars to take the combined population of California, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Idaho, Wyoming and Montana riding at one time by putting an average of five persons to the car.

Only the District of Columbia equalled California's per capita. Nevada, California's sister state, was next highest with a per capita of one car to 2.9 persons.

The importance of the automobile in the life of the Californian was stressed by Bevens by comparison with Alabama's per capita of 10.8, Mississippi's

Reduce the Acid

SICK stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are over-stimulated.

Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour. Alkali kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, because one harmless dose neutralizes many times its volume in acid. For 50 years the standard with physicians everywhere.

Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always know what to do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Go prove this for your own sake. It may save a great many disagreeable hours.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians in correcting excess acids.

CORNHUSKERS WIN FROM PLEASANTON TO LEAD BALL LEAGUE

Heavy Hitting Features 12 to 4 Victory Over Dons

Coach Jess Regli and his Washington Union high school baseball warriors still brandish their war clubs in defiance of any obstacle to their repetition of copping the southern Alameda county ball title again this year!

Heralded as a possible snag to Washington's triumphant march for league honors, the Amador Dons, of Pleasanton, were brushed aside with little consideration, falling prey to the heavy bombardment of the Cornhuskers' artillery Tuesday afternoon. The shellacking was administered on the Amador field and the tune was 12 to 4, giving Washington the undisputed lead in league standings with five victories and no defeats. It was the first loss for the Dons this year.

Blasting out a total of sixteen safe blows during the contest, the Cornhuskers bid to achieve a reputation as one of the heaviest hitting high school nines in the state before the season closes. Johnny Wilson returned to the Washington lineup Tuesday and performed with distinction on the slab, keeping the Dons' seven safeties well scattered.

Rose led the Washington batting attack with two singles, a two bagger, and a walk in five times he strode to the plate. Faria connected for the blows in six times to the platter.

Washington scored one run in the first. Faria singled, Foehr sacrificed him to second from where he tallied on Fontes' double.

The Cornhuskers obtained another marker in the third inning when Rivers walked, Sekigahama laid down a sacrifice bunt, and Faria spanked out a double, bringing in Rivers.

Washington's big guns began to roar in the fourth canto when they cannonaded the Pleasanton slabster's slants to all four corners of the lot. Before the scoring spree had come to a close, five men had romped across the home platter. Nakagowara, Roderick, and Rose successively drove out singles. Wilson sacrificed. Rivers was safe on an error at second, and Sekigahama, Faria and Foehr took their turn in the hitting debauch, all contributing singles.

Pleasanton's first tally of the game came in the fourth after Dutra walked, stole second and came home on a bingle by Miller.

The Dons came through with another in the sixth when Cole rapped out a double to be followed by Miller with another that was good for two sacks.

Two hits and two errors were responsible for three Washington counters in the seventh. Fontes laced out his second double of the game. Nakagowara was safe at first when the shortstop muffed the ball. He stole second, and Roderick doubled, driving in both men. Roderick tallied when the second baseman bobbled Rivers' grounder.

Pleasanton picked up another run in the seventh after Nerton was safe on Fontes' error, went to second on a sacrifice fly and came home on Marino's single.

Foehr crossed the plate for Washington in the eighth inning after singling when Nakagowara came through with a bingle.

The Dons tallied once in the eighth. Dutra doubled, went to third on a sacrifice and scored when Fontes fumbled Silva's grounder.

Rose scored Washington's final run in the ninth frame when he hit safely, stole second, reached third on a sacrifice by Wilson, and scampered across the plate on Sekigahama's safe blow.

Washington will meet Emeryville Friday afternoon at that place.

WASHINGTON BATTERS POUND OUT 11 TO 7 WIN OVER HAYWARD NINE

Cornhuskers Take Fourth Straight League Contest

Another victim was added to the growing list of Washington Union high school southern Alameda county league baseball victories when the Hayward Farmers succumbed to the pounding of Coach Jess Regli's tossers' bats Friday afternoon at Centerville. The score was 11 to 7.

The count was tied at two all until the third frame when three Cornhuskers scurried across the home platter. Washington sewed up the contest in the fifth canto by chalking up four markers and at the same time driving Rose, the Hayward twirler, from the hillock.

The Cornhuskers found the offerings of Rose and Maita for eleven safe blows during the contest, while the Farmers nicked Ketashima for nine safeties.

The hitting honors for the day went to Faria, Washington center fielder, who accounted for several of his nine's tallies by lacing out a homer and two singles, and drawing two free tickets to first in the five times he stepped to the plate.

Hayward scored twice in the first inning on two hits and two errors. Souza first up smashed out a three bagger and crossed the plate when Turner fled out to left field. Lawson bingled and later scored on two successive bobbles by Washington tossers.

Washington knotted the count in their half of the first. Sekigahama up first singled. Faria stepped to the plate and met one of Rose's slants squarely to send the ball far over the center fielders' head for four bases.

Three hits and two walks added three tallies to Washington's total in the third frame. Faria was issued a pass, Foehr sacrificed him to second, from where he scored when Fontes brought his club into action with a ringing double. Fontes pilfered third base and scored when Rose fled to center field. Rivers drew a walk, stole second and crossed the home rubber when Roderick crashed out a three bagger.

Hayward collected another run in the fourths as the result of one hit and two errors.

Coach Regli's men added two more tallies in the fourth. Ketashima singled and stole second, and scored on Faria's single. Faria also tallied on a wild heave by the pitcher.

Hayward tallied twice in the fifth on three hits.

The Cornhuskers gathered four runs in the fifth. Rose walked and stole second. Rivers also was given a free trip to first and Roderick was safe on a fielder's choice when the third baseman retired Rose unassisted. Nakagowara rifled out one that went for three sacks, scoring Rivers and Roderick. Ketashima sacrificed to bring in another tally. Sekigahama was safe on an error by the second baseman, stole second and crossed the plate on Faria's third hit of the day.

The Farmers counted twice in the seventh on two safe blows and a free pass. There was no more scoring during the game although Hayward threatened in the ninth when the first two men up were safe on bobbles by Sekigahama and Fontes. Lawson, however, succumbed to Ketashima's slants and Souza was caught napping off of third for the second out. The game ended when Medsen grounded out, third to first.

IT COSTS 1¢
A MEAL PER PERSON

to operate the modern fast electric range

"How MUCH does an electric range cost to operate?" asks the clever woman shopper.

The answer is that it averages but one cent a meal per person. This has been determined by examining 1,117 electric range users' accounts.

Surely it is worth 1 cent a meal per person to let the electric range do your cooking automatically. When friends come for dinner you are the hostess. Not the cook.

Modern electric ranges are speedy. The oven heats up to 400 degrees in 9 to 11 minutes. Compare this with the time it takes to mix breakfast biscuits. You'll find, no doubt, that the electric oven is faster. Now take the surface cooking elements. During the last few years they have been speeded up. On the new electric range, surface cooking elements are as fast as you'd want them. Yet they are not excessively hot. They are regulated to eliminate scorching and to prevent frying grease from evaporating. Your kitchen, as a result, stays clean.

Consider the new electric range from the point of view of saving your time in the kitchen. After all, slaving in the kitchen never did any one good. Then consider the excellent food that it cooks automatically and with precision. Surely you'll want to take advantage of our Special Offer, which includes easy terms.

SIGNS OF BATTERY WRONGLY INSTALLED

Batteries are sometimes incorrectly installed, but this can be easily detected. One method of finding out whether the installation is correct or not is to turn on the lights. If the ammeter indicates discharge, with the lights on, the battery is correctly placed. Should the ammeter indicate charging, however, the battery should be reversed at once. The ignition switch should be off when this test is made.

NILES CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

E. G. Brinkmeyer, Minister. Sunday School at 10 o'clock. Morning Worship at 11 o'clock. COMMUNION SERVICE "The Voice of the Shepherd."

STORY

"The Legend of the Dandelion."

The Ladies Guild of the Niles Congregational church will meet in their regular meeting Wednesday, April 13, at two o'clock, in the afternoon, in the Guild parlor of the church. The hostesses for the occasion are Mrs. A. A. Hatch, president, and Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth, vice-president. The invitation is extended to all ladies connected in some way with the work of the church, and all members are urged to be present.

The parsonage of the church was the scene of a delightful occasion last Saturday when Mrs. E. G. Brinkmeyer entertained the Women's Fellowship club of the Pacific School of Religion, of Berkeley, including the wives of three members of the faculty, Mrs. J. W. Buckham, Mrs. H. F. Evans, and Mrs. Ralph Wadell. After a brief business meeting with the president, Mrs. E. V. Haynes, in charge, the afternoon was spent in picture portrayal in which members of the group acted out the different scenes. Other features of the afternoon included a reading by Mrs. Buckham, and a playlet given by five ladies. The special guest for the event was Mrs. J. E. Townsend, of Niles, who enjoyed the fellowship with the ladies of the School of Religion. Mrs. Brinkmeyer was assisted by three of her Campfire Sisters in serving dainty refreshments at the close of the social hour. Since this was the first visit to Niles by many in the group, the church building and premises were fully inspected before the group returned to their homes in Berkeley.

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the Niles Christian Endeavor society was held in the church parlor Sunday evening with twenty people present. The topic for the discussion was centered about the theme, "Showing One's Religion." A heated argument was experienced by several members on the question as to who may judge one's religious status. Refreshments came as a surprise to the group when the announcement was made for bacon and eggs, but the plates proved to contain a much more appropriate and delightful light lunch. The meeting was presided over by the president, Jack Rathbone, with the Misses Verna Orcutt and Edna Wellington in charge as the committee for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Brinkmeyer and son, Eugene, enjoyed dinner in San Jose, Sunday noon, after

MONEY

What Is It Good For

?to Hoard or to Squander?

NO! There is a better way. A more conservative way. A thriftier way. A more profitable way to use money. A far better way than either squandering or hoarding it.

That is to spend it—JUDICIOUSLY—to save some and spend some. To deposit some in a savings account, to invest some in safe securities, to spend some for the necessities of life, and to "invest" some upon luxuries and the pleasures of living. Money invested and saved is an earning power which will prove a help and a comfort for the "rainy day." And money, judiciously spent helps to round out a full life of profit and pleasure.

ADVERTISING plays its full part in keeping money in healthy, judicious circulation. People today are more thrifty-minded than they have been for a long time. The merchant who is awake to present-day conditions and to the needs of the paying public, ADVERTISES—tells the customer what he has to sell, and how much it sells for, so that the buyer may find it easier to spend his or her money conservatively and thriftily, and still buy the things they need and want. Thus the merchant, the customer, and the general public are all benefitted by keeping money in circulation.

.....and, of course, to do the most good, your advertising must reach the greatest number of people. You know,

Big Leagues Reap Benefit Through State Agriculture

Earl McNeely, well known big leaguer, increased his batting average this week, but he did it with oranges instead of with horsehide.

McNeely, who went to the big leagues eight years ago from the Sacramento Senators in the coast circuit, owns an orange ranch near Folsom.

During the past orange season he shipped a portion of his fruit to Colombo Brothers, McNeil and Company, San Francisco produce dealers. A dispute arose over the returns paid to McNeely, and the ball player immediately appealed to the "Judge Landis" of California farmers, who happens to be Charles J. Carey, chief of the bureau of licenses and enforcement of the state department of agriculture.

Carey investigated the ball player's complaint and procured an adjustment. The dealers paid McNeely in settlement of his claim, and the orange-growing ball player immediately deserted the ranks of the "hold-outs."

McNeely is now with the St. Louis Browns in the American League. He and Carey, who was recently named chief of the enforcement bureau of the state division of markets, were school mates in Sacramento, years ago.

"College Flapper", the three act comedy given by the American Legion Post and Auxiliary, of Pleasanton, under the direction of Elsie Sansing, of Oakland, was most successful last week.

The comedy is one of the most entertaining ever presented in the community, say witnesses of last week's performance. It furnished riots of laughter for the entire audience.

The young college dancers, half boys and half girls, were attractively dressed and gave several snappy dances and song hits. The glee club, made up of forty singers in this community, revived old memories when they sang several old college songs.

Sixty men dressed in bright colored dresses took the part of flappers. They represented many gay feminine celebrities of the year.

Pleasanton folk who took leading roles were Ollie Page as "Watson", a young college boy; John Amara as "Monk", the football coach; Geraldine George as "Jean", an attractive campus miss; Stanley Anderson as the assistant coach; A. B. Pickard as the big butter and egg man; Peter Christesen as "George", a football player; Andy Jorgensen as "Prof. Gaddy"; Mrs. Bessie Helms as "Dean Howard"; F. E. Hartzell as "Dr. Seamore"; Mrs. Mary Stovall as "Mrs. Seamore"; Linda Strowbridge as "Nellie", a young freshman girl; Buford Hall as "Brick", a young freshman who has fallen in love with Nellie; and Mrs. Frances Apperson as "Mary", another mischievous campus girl.
